...The Bank Habit....

Possibly you who read this have never kept a bank account. If not, let us suggest that you try the experiment. Aside from the fact that your money will be safe from fire and theft, such a habit tends to thrift, economy, discipline and a general understanding of business principles, all of which are essential to success. It also affords a convenient method for the payment of bills; and, as the checks are always preserved and returned to you, they serve as receipts for the amount paid.

GETTING READY FOR A BIG BRYAN BOOM

Special to the Herald.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—The formal launching of the Bryan boom for the democratic nomination for president will take place in this city on the 26th inst. at a big love feast being arranged for the Nebraskan by his friends in the South and the East. It is expected to make the occasion one of record and worthy of the man and the occasion.

Hon. Hoke Smith, Governor Warfield, Tom Johnson, John Sharp Williams, and possibly Senator Bailey and William Randolph Hearst will be present on the occasion to make it noteworthy.

HITCHCOCK STILL MISSING.

The Missing Actor Wanted By Police Is Possibly Crossing the Ocean.

Special to the Herald.

New York, Nov. 1.—No word has yet been received by the police as to the whereabouts of Raymond Hitchcock, the actor under indictment for the mistreatment of young girls. No reply has yet been received from inquiry of the steamer Majestic, now crossing to England, as to whether Hitchcock is on board. Commissioner Bingham expresses doubt if it would be possible to extradite on the present charge even if he has sailed and could be located.

ANOTHER INDICTMENT IN ST. LOUIS COUNCIL

Special to the Herald.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 1.—The fourth indictment in the grand jury probe into the house of delegates and city council was returned shortly after midnight last night when Councilman George C. Linde was indicted on the charge of malfeasance in office. The indictment charges that Linde's firm accepted city contracts. Linde has announced today that he would resign his office.

SECRETARY TAFT

Delays His Departure From Manila. Smith Will Get Advice.

Special to the Herald.

Manila, P. I., Nov. 1.—In order to aid Governor Smith in the administration of problems that confront him, Secretary of War Taft will postpone his departure until the 9th inst. He will then go to Vladivostok for ten days and later will stop at St. Petersburg and Berlin for unofficial visits.

WOMAN WAS BURNED AFTER SAVING HUSBAND

Special to the Herald.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Mary Carroll is dying in a hospital here as a result of burns she received in a fire which destroyed her home early this morning. She rescued her blind husband from the burning building and then went back into the house to get her pet bird when she was overcome by the smoke and fire. A policeman, at the risk of his life, pulled the woman from the building.

CREWS OF THREE BOATS IN MUTINY

Special to the Herald.

Vladivostok, Russia, Nov. 1.—The crews of three torpedo boats were identified in Wednesday's mutiny. It is now reported. The red flag was hoisted on all three of the boats but loyal sailors on two of the boats went to the aid of the officers and succeeded in hauling down the red flags after a fierce struggle. It is not yet known how many were killed during the mutiny.

HALLOWE'EN PRANK KILLED A WOMAN

Special to the Herald.

Logansport, Ind., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Sadie Silver, a prominent club woman of this city, is dead as the result of a Halloween prank last night. Her daughter answered a knock at the door and when she opened the door a pumpkin head was shoved into her face. The girl screamed, and the mother hearing the scream dropped dead from heart failure.

IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS

Looked For in the Arrest of Miss Etta McLaine at Chicago.

Special to the Herald.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Important denouements may be the final outcome of the arrest of Miss Etta McLaine, stenographer for District Attorney Sims, and Alexander B. Gordon, a boarder in the house where Miss McLaine lives. Hearing on the charge of conspiring to steal important government documents was postponed today. It is understood that Miss McLaine has made a partial confession. If more information can be obtained, prominent attorneys will be asked to explain how certain papers in the John R. Walsh case have disappeared at various times. John S. Miller, attorney for the Standard Oil company, and also attorney for Walsh, was closeted with Sims today.
